RETROSPECTIVE 25

October 1 - November 16, 2009

Founded by the Raleigh Arts Commission in 1984 as the Municipal Building Art Exhibition Program ("MBAE"), the gallery was dedicated in 2006 to honor community leader Miriam Preston Block.

The 2296 square foot gallery has, for the past 25 years, introduced compelling artwork created by more than 150 local artists to area residents and visitors.

Showcasing work by 25 artists from the first twenty-five years.
